SYNOPSIS

The story is set in 1930s England. Thrilled to have found the long-lost heir to the Earldom of Hareford, the residents of Hareford Hall are equally horrified to discover that the heir is an unapologetically unrefined cockney bloke from the wrong side of London, Bill Snibson. According to the will, Bill must change his uncouth ways if he has any hope to earn the approval of the family executors and gain the title. His Lambeth sweetheart, Sally, is immediately declared an “inappropriate” match. Encouraged by Sally to take his rightful place, Bill’s efforts at refinement don’t always go as planned. As Bill struggles to get up to snuff without his love, Sally’s own efforts on his behalf may ultimately provide his acceptance into the nobility.

BACKGROUND

Me and My Girl opened in 1937 on London’s West End, and despite its premiere in war-struck London, became the longest-running West End musical of the 1930s. It was one of the first musicals to be broadcast live on the BBC and was adapted into a movie in 1939. The cockney anthem “Lambeth Walk” and its dance catapulted to fame throughout Europe, eventually making its way into New York City nightclubs. Even Winston Churchill regarded the show as a joyous reprieve for war-weary Londoners, as the front page of The Times of London in October 1938 ran a story claiming: “While dictators rage and statesmen talk, all Europe dances to the Lambeth Walk!”

In 1984, a production with a revised script opened to renewed critical acclaim in London, earning two Olivier Awards, including Musical of the Year. After transferring to Broadway in 1986, it was nominated for 13 Tony Awards, winning Best Choreography, Best Actor, and Best Actress. The show was nominated for 11 Drama Desk Awards, winning five for outstanding book, orchestrations, featured actor, featured actress, and director.

Class of 2022 Biographies

Carena Allen (Stage Manager) is a senior at Oakland Catholic and is honored to be given the pleasure of being a stage manager alongside Vivian Bui. This is her second show working on stage crew but was previously a part of the cast in The Pajama Game, White Christmas, and Drowsy Chaperone. Even though she joined stage crew this year, she felt so welcomed by all. She would like to thank everyone for being so kind and making stage crew memorable. She is grateful for her friends in the cast and crew and hopes for good things to come in the future. Finally, she would like to thank all of her friends and family who supported her throughout these past 4 years.

Stephen Byrne (Run Crew) is a Senior at Central Catholic and a proud member of the stage crew. Me and My Girl is his one and only production he has done with the Masque, and he couldn't have chosen a better show to start and end with. He wants to extend his best wishes to all members of the stage crew, the cast, and, of course, the audience. Additionally he would like to thank both the Masque for giving him this opportunity, and the stage crew from the prior show for convincing him to join this one. To top it off, he has four words he'd like to share with you: Let the show begin!

Briana Caldwell (Light Crew) - Bri is a senior at Oakland Catholic High School, and she was on spotlight for Bringing Back Broadway. This spring's show, Me and My Girl, will be her second and final show. Bri enjoys bringing out her creative side while working on elaborate sets. She also loves meeting new friends at the Saturday meetings and building on her teamwork skills. Bri will miss the stressful days leading up to a show, and feeling the relief when it goes as planned. Additionally, she will miss the stage crew family. Bri will attend Case Western Reserve University for Communication Sciences and will study speech language pathology. Bri appreciates the amazing experiences stage crew has provided for her this year.

Colin Hollihan (Pearly King) is a senior at Central Catholic High School and is excited to be in the production and performance of Me & My Girl as the Pearly King. He has also participated in previous Masque productions in Chicago, White Christmas, The Drowsy Chaperone, Guys and Dolls, and in Bringing Back Broadway all as an ensemble member and as a featured dancer. After graduation, Colin plans to attend the University of Pittsburgh and plans to study English and Linguistics to become an EFL teacher.

Class of 2022 Biographies

Makenna Kemper (Pearly Queen) is a senior at Oakland Catholic High School and is so excited to be performing in her last high school show. She would like to thank the cast, crew, and directors for all of their hard work into putting on such an amazing show. Outside of school, Makenna has also performed in multiple plays and musicals as well as local film projects. After graduation, Makenna will be attending Pace University in Manhattan, New York.

Mikayla Keyes (Lady Brighton) is a senior at Oakland Catholic High School and is excited to take on the roles of Lady Brighton and Ensemble in her senior year. This year will be her first and last year in Masque but she has had a lovely time singing as Sarah from "Ragtime" and performing with her wonderfully talented cast-mates in Masque's "Bringing Back Broadway". Outside of Oakland Catholic, she has been in several productions by or produced by Alumni Theater Company. After graduation, Mikayla plans to attend college for Musical Theatre to continue further developing her craft.

Spencer Lehrian (Gerald) is a senior at Central Catholic High School who has done four Masque productions since entering the program during his sophomore year. His notable roles being a featured singer, dance and actor in White Christmas, Benny Southstreet in Guys and Dolls, a featured soloist and speaker in Bringing Back Broadway, and now as Gerald in Me and My Girl. Spencer has been in different choirs since 7th grade and in his junior year entered Central Catholic's Chamber Choir winning the award for honors excellence. Spencer is planning on attending Kent State University, majoring in entrepreneurship and education but he still plans on performing in their theater arts department.

Aoi Miyaki (Fly Crew) is a senior at Central Catholic participating his third show as a member of stage crew for the Masque. He has previously participated in the Guys and Dolls and Bringing Back Broadway: A Musical Revenue. He would like to thank everyone in the crew for making Saturday meeting joyful, especially Marley Saal, Martone Olsavsky, Briana Caldwell, Stephen Bryne, and Caleb Lewis. Aoi wishes the best of luck to everyone who is part of the show.

Vanessa Moats (Mrs. Worthington-Worthington) is a senior at Oakland Catholic and is excited to take on the role of Mrs. Worthington-Worthington and perform in her sixth and final Masque show. Her previous Masque shows included The Pajama Game, Chicago, White Christmas, Drowsy Chaperone and Bringing Back Broadway: A Musical Revue. Vanessa's love of musical performance began in grade school when she played the orphan July in Annie and Ursula in The Little Mermaid. She has been singing since becoming a cantor in the first grade and dancing since age 3, and currently is the captain of the Senior Competitive Team at Star Styled Dance Center. Vanessa will attend The Ohio State University, majoring in Microbiology and minoring in Dance. Her future goal is to become a pediatrician.

Martone Olsavsky (Light Crew) - Martone is a senior at Oakland Catholic High School, and has been doing Masque shows since freshman year. Martone worked on six shows including Pajama Game, Chicago, White Christmas, Drowsy Chaperone, Guys and Dolls, and Bringing Back Broadway. This spring's Me and My Girl will be Martone's seventh and final show. Martone enjoys connecting with other grades and being a part of the inner workings of the shows. They will miss seeing their stage crew family on Saturdays and working through a hectic tech week. Martone has accomplished a lot in terms of lighting, and even programmed over 300+ lighting cues for Bringing Back Broadway. Martone hopes that the audience feels the devotion, enthusiasm, and creativity that the Masque cast and crew has put into the show. Martone hopes that the friendships they made throughout this experience will last for a lifetime. Although they have not decided on a school yet, Martone plans on studying psychology.

Nora Ottie (Crew) is a senior at Oakland Catholic High School who has performed in The Pajama Game, Chicago, White Christmas, The Drowsy Chaperone, Bringing Back Broadway, and Guys and Dolls. Although she wasn't able to perform in her last show, she is ecstatic to be able to help out behind the scenes. She would like to thank the cast for making her last show amazing and crew for accepting her so quickly. Lastly, she would like to thank all of her amazing directors she has had throughout her four years of being on the stage. She is excited for what the future holds for her theatre and academics. She gives a big shoutout to her family and friends for all of their support!

Carola Petrucci (Lady Battersby) is a senior at Oakland Catholic and very excited to perform in her final masque production with the role of "Lady Battersby". Carola has performed in three prior masque productions including "White Christmas", "Drowsy Chaperone", and "Bringing Back Broadway", yet her musical theatre experience didn't start there as she played the role of "Belle" in Beauty and the Beast, "Violet" in White Christmas, "Katie" in the Phantom of the Soap Opera as well as numerous other roles in various high school productions. Recently, she was a finalist in the Shakespeare Monologue and Scene contest, performed at the cabaret, won the Steinway Society of Young Artists piano competition, and is about to partake in her senior dance recital. After graduation Carola hopes to continue music on the side while pursuing other career paths.

Audrey Pohlod (Run Crew) is a senior at Oakland Catholic and is excited to work on her very first (and sadly last) show with Masque. She has enjoyed her new experiences immensely and is glad to have participated on the stage right run crew! She would like to thank the other stage crew members for welcoming her so quickly, her friends for encouraging her to join, and Miss Doyle especially for all her hard work controlling the chaos that is stage crew. She is looking forward to what the future holds and grateful to be a part of such a fun group!

Class of 2022 Biographies

Josephine Richardson (Light Crew) is a senior at Oakland Catholic and has been a member of the stage crew since her sophomore year, participating in White Christmas, The Drowsy Chaperone, Guys and Dolls, and Bringing Back Broadway.

Marley Saal (Light Crew) is a senior at Central Catholic has mixed feelings about his third and final show with Masque. On the one hand, it has been an amazing experience and he has confidence in the people who will be in the crew when he's gone. But on the other hand, he is very saddened to not be a part of the crew anymore. He was in the crew for The Drowsy Chaperone and Bringing Back Broadway. In his shows, he worked the spotlights and enjoyed doing it. He wants to thank everyone in the stage crew for the incredible community they've created and all the positive experiences. For college he is going to NYC to study film(voice acting/directing).

Dominic Spino (Lord Battersby) is a senior at Central Catholic High School and is excited to take the role of Lord Battersby in the Masque production in his senior year. He joined the Masque his junior year in the ensemble, he is also involved with the Central Catholic Chamber Singers. After graduation, Dominic plans on attending Loyola University of Chicago, majoring in economics and supply chain management.

Amelia Stipanovic (Sound Crew) is a senior at Oakland Catholic and Me and My Girl is the second show with Masque. She previously worked on Sound for Bringing Back Broadway in the fall.

Congratulations to the Class of 2022!

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CAST & CREW OF ME AND MY GIRL

WE'RE PROUD OF YOU
LOUISA!
LOVE, MOM, DAD,
DAVID & AUDREY

*There isn't any doubt about the best place we know.
It's The Auditorium in Central where the smart people go.*

*The atmosphere will lighten when the cast takes the air.
And ev'rything will brighten when we find the cast up there.*

*Now choreo has finished and rehearsals have run,
It's time for the show, it's time for some fun!*

Congratulations

...to Maria and the Cast & Crew

Here at Oakland Catholic, The Stage is Yours

There's nothing to hold you back. Our students lead in all areas of study, and that includes the arts. At Oakland Catholic, you can pursue your passion at a high level, whether it is dance, voice, theater, fine arts, music, or graphic design. OC Students perform on stages big, small, and everything in between. It's about you getting the most out of your gifts, as the Oakland Catholic community supports you on your creative journey.

Will the arts remain your favorite hobby, or will they become your life's work? Find out at OC.

Congratulations and best wishes to the cast and crew of Me and My Girl!
